

The Role of Faith-Based Organizations in the Rebuilding of New Orleans

THE POSSIBILITIES, PITFALLS AND PRACTICALITY OF USING GOVERNMENT FUNDS IN MINISTRY

HOSTED BY THE INSTITUTE FOR FAITH AND THE PUBLIC SQUARE
AT NEW ORLEANS BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

INSTITUTE for FAITH and the PUBLIC SQUARE

April 11, 2011 9 am - 9 pm

Plenary Session at 7 pm with Tony Perkins

.....

Panel discussion on the advisability of faith-based organizations using government funds.

.....

Speakers from the city, state and federal governments will present their vision of how faith-based groups can help New Orleans recover.

.....

Breakout sessions for those involved in or hoping to be so in ministry in the following areas: Writing Grants for Public Funding, Mentoring At-risk Youth, Preschools/Day Care, Health Clinics, Mental health/counseling – Rivers of Hope, Abused women shelters, Rebuilding homes, Drug rehabilitation, Homeless Shelters.

REGISTER ONLINE AT:

www.faithandpublicsquare.org