

Who Lives, Who Dies, Who Decides: Panel Discussion on Medical Ethics in the Real World

Tuesday, September 17 | 7:00 - 8:30 PM

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) (3939 Gentilly Blvd NOLA 70126)

Free and Open to Public, Including Pastors, Physicians, and Students

Panelists:

Burke Balch, JD (National Right to Life)

Steve Lemke, Ph.D (Provost, NOBTS)

Jeff White, MD, FACC, FCCP (Cardiologist and Hospital System Ethics Director)

Very Rev. José Lavastida, S.T.D. (Archdiocese of New Orleans)

Mari Wirfs, RN, PhD, BCFNP (Southern Univ. BR)

Join us to engage in a pivotal discussion about making ethical decisions in the medical setting near the end of life through the lens of real world scenarios.

- Learn about national and state issues, such as assisted suicide and euthanasia.
- Delve into issues facing families, including decisions on nutrition and hydration.
- Understand how these issues can impact you and your family.
- Pastors and Leaders: Receive simple resources to educate your community.

For More Information:

www.ProLifeLouisiana.org/MedicalEthics

Contact Ryan Verret of Louisiana Right to Life at 504.835.6520 or rverret@prolifelouisiana.org

NEW ORLEANS
BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY